

Women in Jazz Fund Drive

Join in preserving and enhancing Austin's artistic and cultural heritage through the Women in Jazz Concert Series. We invite you to join our growing team of contributors to experience with us the wonderful world of jazz as it is performed by women from Austin and around the country. As of January 1, 2012 the following sponsorships are available to corporations, businesses, and individuals.

Invest in a Golden Marketing Opportunity

Women in Jazz Association, Inc. was founded by Pamela and Kevin Hart to provide Women in Jazz Concert Series and Vocal Performance Workshops for performance opportunities and professional development for jazz vocalists and instrumentalists in the Austin metropolitan area. Women in Jazz Association, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization.

Austin, Texas, "the live music capital of the world," can boast of very little live music that includes jazz vocals. Since the venues in Austin that consistently provide jazz music book vocalists much less than other instrumentalists, jazz vocalists create their own entertainment venues in Austin. Women in Jazz Concert Series is the outgrowth of the need for a performance venue for women jazz vocalists and instrumentalists.

The Purpose of Women in Jazz Association:

The purpose of Women in Jazz Association is to perpetuate the appreciation and performance of traditional jazz vocal and instrumental music. As vocal jazz is a declining art form, this purpose is charitable -- the protection and preservation of a valuable art form called jazz; that is, vocal jazz. It is through concerts, educational workshops, and performance opportunities of singers that provide the means to the end -- perpetuate vocal jazz music.
